Office of the S. Dn officer Transport &
Periyar 24 September 1895 —

From,

H. T. Keeling Esquire
Exe. Engineer in charge of
Sub. Dn, Transport & Stores

To

The Superintendent of Works
No I Periyar Division
Periyar.

Sir,

With reference to your No 636.S / 20.9.95 forwarding G.O No 2208.W / 5.9.95 I have the honor to point out that

1. were I to volunteer under para 20 my pay would be reduced by nearly 300 %

2. The pensions awardable under paras 23 & 24 would amount in my case to a reduction of that awardable under section II para 778 chapter XXXIV C. S. Regulations.

3. I am willing to volunteer if I am assured that in the event of my being called on active service

(a) my pay will not be reduced

below the pay and allowances I may be drawing when called out

(b) that the pension awardable in the event of my being wounded or killed be commensurate with the pay drawn by me and not according to army rank

(c) that an allowance be granted to cover the extra premium for war risk on my life policies in force at the time of being called out.

4. In conclusion I may state that if the above conditions are granted I should prefer to serve with the Engineers and that I possess a certificate of proficiency for a. b. c. d & e in army Form E 571. The certificate is signed by Major Colebrook Carter (adj) and Col. Lord Wantage Commandant 1 V.B Royal Berkshire Regiment and dated 31.7.86 on which date I was Sergeant in the Regiment. I

Subsequently

Subsequently served as a Subaltern until 88 in which year I resigned.

Sir,

With reference to Government Order No 2208 W. d/5.9.95 (Communicated in your No 636s of 20.9.95) I have the honour to apply for information on the following points:-

(a). Under para 3 it would seem that I am not eligible for a Commission since I am more than 30 years of age.

(b)

(b) Under para 20 it would seem that if I were given a Commission and called to serve I should only receive the pay of my rank in the army, and should relinquish the pay of my rank in the P. W. D.

2 — I have been a private, Non-Commissioned Officer, and 2nd Lieutenant of Volunteers in England (the 4th Berkshire), and passed the Examination for Lieutenant in 1881, and I should be glad to serve in the Indian Army Reserve and to pass any further Examination required, after being informed upon the two points referred to above.
