PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

From the Government of Bombay,
Political Department, of 16th February 1895, No. 1119.

Telegram from the Government of India,
Foreign Department, of 19th February 1895.

"380 I Your endorsement 83 Political dated 31st January please telegraph approximate estimate of cost of providing accommodation for ex-king Theebaw at Calicut or other suitable station including cost of any buildings it would be necessary to erect. Bombay report you have been fully informed as to accommodation
required."

Order:—of 25th February 1895, No. 133.

Communicated to the Collectors of Malabar and South Canara who will give their immediate attention to the subject and submit at a very early date an approximate estimate of the cost of providing the accommodation.

accommodation required for ex-king Theebaw and party at Calicut and Mangalore respectively.

2. The ex-king and his family will require a house containing at least four sitting and four bed rooms with out-houses for forty servants including 4 butlers and 8 ayahs. Accommodation should also be provided for the Police officer in charge who may not always be unmarried and who will be accompanied by four Police-men and eight servants. Besides these a coach house for two carriages and stables for four horses will be necessary.

3. The collectors should first ~~and~~ ascertain whether there are any existing buildings which might be altered to suit the ex-king and party. Failing this the estimate should in each case provide for the purchase of a site - if Government land is not available - and for the erection of new buildings. The Public Works officers should be consulted.
