and that of the Port Conservator at Cuddalore Old Town without a license from the Govt. of India. On being called upon to explain the irregularity, Mr. Paul, Messrs Parry & Co's Agent at Cuddalore, states that he was unaware that any license was necessary and requests that one may now be granted to him to work the line in question, the fee for which, if any, being remitted on the amount being intimated. The Supt. of Telegraphs, Madras Division, reports that there is no objection to a license being granted for the connection in question.

ABSTRACT.

PRECIS.

SIR,

Encloses instructions received from the Director General of Telegraphs. With reference to your letter No. 189, dated the 18th of February 1895, I have the honour to bring to your notice that Messrs Parry and Company have been working a telephone line between their office and that of the Port Conservator at Cuddalore Old Town without a licence from the Govt. of India, and to point out for such action as you may consider necessary the irregularity that has been committed and the penalty incurred under Act XIII of 1885.

2. I further beg to say that in all such cases a licence granted by the Government of India is necessary before any Telegraph or Telephone line that passes beyond the limits of a private house and grounds can be constructed, and that a licence will be necessary in this particular instance if the use of the line is to be continued.
