II CIRCLE.

Sir,

Enclosures. 2nd

I regret to have to report that I have just ascertained that the office messengers do not sleep at my office & that the office is entirely deserted at night.

At Duggirala one messenger used always to sleep at the office & this was a point about which I was very particular & in one occasion I reprimanded one of the messengers for not sleeping at the office at Duggirala & for leaving the office without being relieved and without reporting to the manager when I was in camp.

3. The practice has apparently been entirely dropped without any reference to me since the office came in here & I consider it reflects seriously on the conduct of the late manager of my office that he permitted this to be done without letting me know.

4. As you are aware the office here is not near any buildings. It is also an old jail and the messengers on receiving my order to sleep at the office have represented the difficulty of one man sleeping there alone.

5. This objection I consider valid. I propose to
