In reply to your letter, No. 743, dated the 14th September 1894, I am directed to say that the Government of India do not understand that the orders referred to in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the letter from this office, No. 13, dated the 18th January 1892, have been modified by the instructions contained in the despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State to the Government of Madras, No. 15 (Public Records), dated the 26th July last, regarding the supply to the India Office, for the use of the British Museum, of an extra copy of such official publications of which less than ten copies are sent. The latter orders appear to the Government of India to be applicable to the exceptional cases in which under special orders less than ten copies are forwarded.

Communicated to the Departments of the Secretariat, the Director of Public Instruction, and the Superintendent, Government Press, in continuation of G.O., dated 14th September 1894, No. 742.
