19TH FEBRUARY 1895, No. 100, REVENUE.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue), dated 1st February 1895, Mis. No. 434 :—

Read—again Board's Proceedings, dated 25th October 1894, Mis. No. 4579, recording, pending report of the result of the appeal to the High Court, letter from the Deputy Commissioner, Northern Division, submitting, with remarks, a copy of the judgment given by the Sessions Judge, Berhampur, in the case against P. Linga Moorthy, late Sub-Inspector, Salt and Abkari Department.

Read—also the following letter from M.R.Ry. Rao Bahadur R. DHARMA ROW NAIDU Garu, Deputy Commissioner of Salt and Abkari Revenue, Northern Division, dated 13th January 1895, No. 120 :—

With reference to Board's Proceedings, Mis. No. 4579, dated 25th October 1894, awaiting the result of the appeal to the High Court in the case of late Sub-Inspector Linga Moorthy of this Department, I have the honour to state that the sentence of six years' rigorous imprisonment passed by the Sessions Judge, Ganjam, has been reduced by the High Court to one of two years' rigorous imprisonment under section 409 and a nominal sentence of one day under section 471 of the Indian Penal Code.

Resolution—dated 1st February 1895, Mis. No. 434.

The Board begs leave to report that Poodi-peddi Linga Moorthy, who was employed as a 5th-grade Sub-Inspector in the Naupada Circle, was found guilty of offences punishable under sections 467, 471 and 409 of the Indian Penal Code and was sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment for each offence or six years in all by the Sessions Judge, Ganjam, on the 6th June 1894. The Sub-Inspector was consequently dismissed from service by the Deputy Commissioner, Northern Division, on 25th June 1894.

Against the judgment of the Sessions Court, the Sub-Inspector preferred an appeal to the High Court with the result that the sentence of six years' rigorous imprisonment passed by the Sessions Judge was reduced to two years' rigorous imprisonment under section 409 and a nominal sentence of one day under section 471 of the Indian Penal Code.

The Board therefore requests that Government will be pleased to order the publication of a notification in the Fort St. George Gazette declaring Poodi-peddi Linga Moorthy ineligible for further employment in Government service.
