INDEXED

2295

There was short expenditure in the districts of Kistna, Madura, Tinnevely and South Canara. The Collector of Kistna has not explained the short expenditure in his district; he is requested to do so. In Madura it is due to the allotment of Rs. 16 provided for re-roofing the thatched Customs sheds at Devipatnam not having been utilized as the work was found to be unnecessary. In Tinnevely the grant of Rs. 250 for repairs to the Custom-house building at Kayalpatnam was not utilized as it was found to be useless to repair it. The construction of a new building has been approved—vide G.O., Revenue Department, dated 28th February 1895, Mis. No. 897. The Collector of South Canara states that the short expenditure in the district is due to the usual provision for urgent repairs not having been utilized, there having been no necessity for such repairs in the year under report.
