READ—the following paper :—

Memorandum from Colonel W. L. RANKING, Officiating Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, to the General Officers Commanding Districts, and Heads of Departments, dated Ootacamund, 28th October 1896, No. A./B.T. 11627 (Furlough and Leave—Non-commissioned officers).

An instance having occurred in which a Non-commissioned officer of the Commissariat-Transport Department had to be sent home by a private vessel (instead of a troopship), as a result of delay due to the use of obsolete forms in the preparation of the Proceedings of Medical Board and Application for furlough, His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces directs that General Officers Commanding Districts and Heads of Departments will be good enough to take steps to prevent a recurrence of the circumstance and to issue orders that none but the latest reprints of forms are used, all obsolete forms being destroyed.
