Canton Jan. 4. 1896

The Honble Colonel J. Pennycook, R.G., C.S.I.
Secretary to Government, P.W.D.
Mudras

Sir: I have the honor to apply, as agent for Messrs. Inlay & Co of Calcutta, for the loan of the services of an Engineer to supervise the construction of about 20 miles of Ghāt road commencing at the Chinaiat River on the Travancore boundary.

The work is being commenced immediately, I am unable to find an Engineer out of employment who could take up the work, which ought to be under such supervision from its very beginning.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,
H. Rhodes James.
