PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

From the Inspector-General of Registration, Madras, dated 20th April 1896, No.G.1736.

The Sub-registry office at Valavanur in the South Arcot District, which was opened on the 1st April 1893 under the sanction accorded by Government in G.O. No.224., Judicial, dated 30th January 1893, is held in a private rented building which is ill-adapted to the requirements of a registration office. Valavanur is a town of some commercial activity and it is difficult to get a suitable building on moderate rent.

2. The registrations, and receipts, expenditure and surplus of the office during the past 3 years are given below. The office yields a good surplus income.

Year.	Registrations.	Receipts.	Expenditure.	Surplus
1893-94.	1841.	Rs.2098.	Rs.1295.	Rs803.
1894-95.	2527.	" 2637.	" 1524.	"1113.
1895-96.	2379.	" 2508.	" 1668.	" 840.

3. In these circumstances, I have the honor to recommend that Government may be pleased to sanction the construction of an office building for the Sub-registration of Valavanur on the standard design for a smaller office approved in G.O. No.2230.W., dated 21st July 1888.
