No. 1240, JUDICIAL, 3RD AUGUST 1896.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From the Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Appellate Side, Madras, dated 5th March 1896, No. 823.

Reference, No. 871, dated 23rd April 1896.

In the letter read above the Registrar of the High Court, Appellate Side, communicates to Government a suggestion which has been made by the Consulting Architect, and which has the support of the Honourable the Judges of the High Court, that the whole of the Law Court buildings, including the Small Cause and City Civil Courts, and the grounds round them, should be placed under the charge of the Registrar of the High Court on the Appellate Side, who should be responsible for their cleanliness and good order.

2. The Government is inclined to the opinion that the circumstances of the case are such that it would be expedient that the charge of these buildings and grounds should be under the control of a single officer, and considers that the Registrar of the Appellate Side might properly be placed in charge of them, but before passing final orders on the matter it desires to learn whether the Judges of the Small Cause Court have any objection to the proposal.

3. The Judges will accordingly be requested to inform Government of their opinion on the question.

To the Chief Judge, Court of Small Causes, Madras.

From M.R.Ry. M. O. PARTHASARATHY AIYANGAR Avargal, Acting Chief Judge, Court of Small Causes, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 14th July 1896, No. 509.

With reference to your memorandum, No. 871, dated the 23rd April 1896, I have the honour to state that my colleagues and myself have no objection to the proposal contained therein.

ORDER—No. 1240, Judicial, dated 3rd August 1896.

The whole of the Law Court buildings at Madras, including the Small Cause and the City Civil Courts, and the grounds round them, will accordingly be placed under the administrative charge of the Registrar of the High Court.
