From J. P. Davidson. Executive Engineer (on furlough)

Sir - Under Article 340 of the C. S. Regulations 1 year and 3 months furlough without medical certificate was granted from 5th April/95; on my last pay certificate it is stated that this furlough may be extended to 2 years. I am anxious to apply for 4 months extension, but when doing so have to submit to the India Office a statement of the assent of the Madras Government to the extension applied for. Under these circumstances shall the honor to request that you will kindly obtain the sanction of the Government of Madras to an extension of 4 months furlough being granted time, & communicate the same to me for submission to the India Office - Shall the honor be Sir.

Your most obedient servant

J. P. Davidson
