GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

General.
Account.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, to the Joint Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Ootacamund, 15th September 1896, No. B./B. 8994.

In returning the marginally-noted letter, received with your memorandum No. 1006 D. of the 7th August last, I am Letter No. 334 S.E., dated 2nd July 1896, from the Executive Engineer, West Coast division, to the Superintending Engineer, IV Circle. desired to inform you that His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding considers that, as mats and chicks are not supplied to buildings used as residences under the Military Works Department, it would be a bad precedent to apply the principle of G.O., No. 832 W., dated 27th March 1893, to similar buildings under the Public Works Department.

ENCLOSURE.

From G. P. CARLESS, Esq., Executive Engineer, West Coast division, to the Superintending Engineer, IV Circle, dated Calicut, 2nd July 1896, No. 334 S.E.

I have the honour to state that mats and chicks are being supplied to Military buildings used as residences under G.O., No. 832 W., dated 27th March 1893, which revives paragraph 974 of the Madras Code, whereby the provision of these articles is allowed when carrying out the annual repairs to the buildings. The Examiner of Public Works Accounts, however, states that the above quoted Government Order applies to Civil and not to Military buildings — vide item 28 (A and E) in the divisional objectionable item statement for March 1896. I do not agree with the interpretation of the Examiner as it is distinctly stated in paragraph 970 of the Madras Code that the rules in chapter VIII, presumably including paragraph 974) apply to all three classes of public buildings, Imperial, Provincial and Local, and request you will be good enough to obtain the definite orders of Government on the subject.

Office-note from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated 24th July 1896, No. 2161 D./A.

Chapter VIII of the Madras Code distinctly refers to Civil Works, Imperial, Provincial and Local, and chapter X of the same Code deals with Military Works; G.O., No. 832 W., dated 27th March 1893, reviving paragraph 974 of chapter VIII applies therefore to Civil Works and not to Military Works.

2. Please also see paragraph 2 of my office-note No. 1498 D./A. of 28th May 1896.

ORDER—No. 2808 W., dated 30th September 1896.

Communicated to the Superintending Engineer, IV Circle, and to other Superintending Engineers concerned.

2. G.O., No. 832 W., dated 27th March 1893, will be regarded as inapplicable to Military buildings used as residences.

(True Extract.)
