Mr. J. M. Lacey, Assistant Engineer, Public Works Department.
Mr. W. V. Baker, Honorary Assistant Engineer, Public Works Department.

Department, No. 2123-B, dated the 28th August 1896, I am desired to state that the gentlemen marginally named, who have submitted their names for commissions in the Indian Army Reserve of officers, are beyond the limit of age up to which applicants can be admitted into the reserve.

2. Under paragraph 3 of G. G. O. No. 308 of 1894, a commission as Second-Lieutenant may be given to any gentleman up to the age of 30 provided he fulfils certain conditions, but as the gentlemen named are over that age, the Governor-General in Council extremely regrets that their offer to enrol themselves in the reserve cannot be accepted at present, under the regulations as they now stand. It is hoped, however, that it may be found practicable to amend the rules so far as to admit of their services being accepted hereafter.

I am,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Quaintance.

Secretary to the Government of India.
