THE CHIEF SECRETARY,

To

THE SECRETARY,

ETARY,
Public Works DEPARTMENT.

Your office note 225 C, dated 15th. Please see the annexed extract from notes on the subject by the Honorable Mr. Bliss, C.I.E. which explain the object of the grant.

Extract!

"It appeared to me when we were going through the list of works on Tuesday "with Colonel Campbell that he had but "a narrow margin for incomplete works "and unforeseen necessities. For the "former he had 2.50. For the latter we "made up a sort of reserve, by striking "out a good many works not of the first "necessity, amounting, I think, to Rs. "60,000 or 70,000. But I doubt if that "is enough. Better raise the P.W.grant "under 45 from 27. to 28. , so as to be "on the safe side and leave a margin."

Chief Secretary.
