The Chief Engineer,

Sir,

Sir,
With reference to G. O. No 2702 W.
dated 22nd September 1896, I have the honor to point out ^{that} the rule (P.W. D. Code I. VI. 16 (4)) quoted, applies to Sub-Division officers.
Mr Hutton is not a Sub Division officer, but is on special duty, and I think his case might be taken under 16 (3). He has records to keep and has now three Surveyors working under him and before the end of the year will, in all probability, have six or more.
For the purpose of plotting, for designing &c, office room will be required and can be given conveniently and with better super-vision in his own house.

I would request, therefore, that the allowance of Rs 15 per month as original - by asked for, may be passed.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
 A. S. Mack

Mr. Hutton is certainly not an Executive Engineer in charge of a Division and if he is not in the same position as a Sub-divisional Officer it is for Govt. to determine what his position is.

OFFICE NOTE No. 393178

To

W.

If by an "Attached Officer" is meant an officer having no definite charge, I do not see under what rule in the P.W. Code he can be granted an office allowance. He is not an Executive Engineer in charge of a division nor is he a Sub Divisional Officer so that the rules in Code I.VI.16 are inapplicable.
