To Capt. Ellis R.E.
Executive Engineer,
Kistna Northern Division.

Sir,
Would you kindly afford me information as to whether I shall be eligible for Exchange Compensation Allowance, under the following circumstances:—
I was born in Bombay in 1871 of Parsee parentage, & came to England in 1895. From the time I reached England in 1895 until the 25th October 1895 (on which date I embarked for India) I lived continuously in that country.
Hence nearly twenty years of my life have been spent there.
Being only four years old when I left this country, and

In fact I claim that my is in England.

I would further add my father also has been domiciled in England for the past twenty-two years, in which country he is still resident.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

M. R. Kharegat.
