Enclosures.

26-2-96

With reference to G.O. No. 1713 dated 16 January 1896, I have the honour to report that the plans and estimate for a building to contain the properly rooms of the High, the Small Cause Court and the City Civil Courts are under preparation. In the meantime, I request that I may be permitted to indent at once on the Secretary of State, in the usual course, for the funds required as it takes some time to obtain them.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Deputy Consulting Architect Madras

My dear friend

The reference to the original letter of January 18th. I have the honor to repeat that the plan and details for a building to contain the proposed rooms of the light house are now in the hands of the architect and the necessary plans are being prepared.
I am sure that the project will be carried out in the most satisfactory manner.
I am, dear friend, very respectfully,
Yours truly,

John Quincy Adams
