READ—the following papers :—

From G. H. D. WALKER, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), dated Calcutta, the 21st January 1896, No. 194 G.

The under-mentioned papers are forwarded to the Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, Railway Branch, for favour of compliance.

ENCLOSURES.

Copy of a letter from the Surgeon-General with the Government of India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, dated 6th January 1896, No. 21.

I have the honour to forward ten copies of this office Circular No. 8–38 C., dated the 27th December 1895, and to request the favour of necessary instructions being issued, so that the annual confidential reports and additions to record of services for 1895, and future years, on Military Assistant Surgeons and Hospital Assistants employed under the orders of the Public Works Department on different railways may be furnished on Army Hospital Forms Nos. 8 and 9, respectively.

From JOHN T. W. LESLIE, Esq., M.B., Secretary to the Surgeon-General with the Government of India, dated Simla, the 27th December 1895, Circular No. 8–38 C.

Forwarded for information, with a request that annual confidential reports and record of services for 1895, on all Military Assistant Surgeons and Hospital Assistants serving under his orders, may be furnished on the new forms which can be had gratis on application to the contractors for printing Government of India Stock forms, Howrah.

From Surgeon-Major J. SHEARER, Offg. Secretary to the Principal Medical Officer, Her Majesty's Forces in India, dated Simla, 11th December 1895, Circular No. 10.

No. 4310-38 C., dated 26th October 1895, from Surgeon-General with the Government of India.

In view of complete records of service being maintained for members of the Indian Subordinate Medical Department, the following forms will be introduced with effect from the 1st January 1896 :—

I.—Assistant Surgeon Branch.

2. Immediately after an Assistant Surgeon, 3rd class, has been gazetted into the service, he will prepare one copy of his Record of Service (A.H.F. 21) and submit it to the Medical officer in charge for transmission direct to the Surgeon-General with the Government of India.

3. The confidential report and the annual additions to the record of service have been amalgamated into one form (A.H.F. 8). On the 1st January of each year, every Military Assistant Surgeon will fill in those portions (pages 1 and 2) which relate to the additions to his record of service for the past year, and, after signing and dating it, will submit the return to the Medical officer in charge. The latter will then fill in the confidential report (pages 3 and 4), and after signing and dating the document, will forward it to the District Principal Medical Officer for completion and transmission to the Surgeon-General with the Government of India, through the Command Principal Medical Officer, and Principal Medical Officer, Her Majesty's Forces in India.

4. On the transfer of a Military Assistant Surgeon from one appointment to another, a confidential report prepared up to the date of transfer will invariably be attached to the transfer return (A.H.F. 19), the additions to the record of service (pages 1 and 2) being removed in this instance as unnecessary.

5. Every Military Assistant Surgeon should keep in his possession a copy of the annual additions to his record of service. Those who enter the service after the 1st January 1896, should each keep a copy of his record of service also.

II.—Hospital Assistant Branch.

6. Immediately after a Sub-Hospital Assistant has been gazetted into the service, he will prepare one copy of his Record of Service (A.H.F. 22) and submit it to the Medical officer in charge for transmission direct to the Surgeon-General with the Government of India.

7. The confidential report and the annual additions to the record of service have been amalgamated into one form (A.H.F. 9). On the 1st January of each year, every Hospital Assistant will fill in those portions (pages 1 and 2) which relate to the additions to his record of service for the past year, and after signing and dating it, will submit the return to the Medical officer in charge. The latter will then fill in the confidential report (pages 3 and 4), and after signing and dating the document will forward it to the District Principal Medical Officer for completion and transmission to the Surgeon-General with the Government of India, through the Command Principal Medical Officer, and Principal Medical Officer, Her Majesty's Forces in India.

8. On the transfer of a hospital assistant from one appointment to another, a confidential report prepared up to the date of transfer will invariably be attached to the transfer return (A.H.F. 19), the additions to the record of service being removed in this instance as unnecessary.

9. Every hospital assistant should keep in his possession a copy of the annual additions to his record of service. All sub-hospital assistants entering the service after the 1st January 1896 should each keep a copy of his record of service also.

ORDER—No. 83 R., dated 30th January 1896.
