Letter from A. Strinivasa Sastri, Onwards, P.W.D., to the District Commissioner of Ambasamudram No: 113 dated 25th March 1896:—

With reference to your warrant of Commission appointing me as a Commissioner on Original suit No. 170 of 1894, & asking me to report by the 27th of this month after measuring and surveying Nos. 462 & 463 according to the field books &c., I have the honor to inform you that I am unable to accept the Commissionership without the permission of the District Engineer. Further I have to state that the date of report is too near to make any reference to higher authorities. It is being the end of the official year, I am unable to attend to this work during the month. If this warrant of Commission is served to the permission of the District Engineer

I hope I will be able to submit my report by the 3rd April 1896.
