To

The Secretary to the Government of India,

Home Department.

Sir,

I am directed to request that instructions may be issued to the Superintendent of Government Printing, Calcutta, to supply the P.W. Department of this Government with Parts IV, V and VI of the Gazette of India, with effect from the commencement of the current Calendar year. The transfer of the work of the Marine Department to the P.W. Secretariat has rendered necessary the supply of these Parts of the Gazette, and the Superintendent states that without the authority of the Government of India he is precluded from issuing them to me.

I have etc.
