The Honorable Col: D. McNeil Campbell. R.E.
Secretary to the Govt: of Madras, P.W.D.
Madras

Most Honorable Lord,

I once more beg most submissively leave to approach your Lordship with this my humble reminder to my petition dated 5th January 1896, requesting an exemption from Examination rules — enabling me to take up any temporary appointments of Rs 15/- in any Dept: with reference to Chief Engineer's Endorsements Nos 1060 C / 14 "margs and 3084 C / 30th Sept 95

But for the persecutions of pitiless Fortune, I would have got this exemption long back.

In conclusion I humbly beg to be excused for my intrusion and concessant petitions which I cannot but do in as much as I, in my distressed state, have none but your Lordship's self whom I can appeal to for help.

I beg to remain,
Most Honorable Lord,
Your Most Obdt: Servant,
T. Venkatachalam
