FEBRUARY.

Temporary Establishments.

Sanctioning the retention from the 20th February to the 10th March 1895 of the temporary clerk employed in the Deputy Collector's Office, Anantapur, for sorting records, and approving the Accountant-General's suggestion regarding the date from which the period of six months sanctioned for — should be calculated.

Exr. P. W. Accts.

With order

5. As the clerk has actually worked during the period, viz., 20th February 1895 to 11th March 1895, for which Rs. 9-10-7 was paid to him, and as the same has been recovered from him under the orders of the Accountant-General, I have the honour to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for the payment of the said amount to the clerk.

Resolution—Mis. No. 6060, dated 4th December 1895.

Submitted to Government with the recommendation that the retention of the temporary clerk from 20th February to 11th March 1895 may be sanctioned. His retention up to the former date was sanctioned in G.O. No. 4787, dated 5th December 1894.

No. 3625.

I have the honour to forward for sanction the accompanying Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 6060, dated 4th instant, submitting with its recommendation letter from the Collector of Anantapur requesting sanction to the retention from 20th February to 10th March 1895 of the temporary clerk in the Anantapur Deputy Collector's office for sorting records, and to state that the objection in the present case was raised in accordance with the view expressed in the late Mr. Clogstoun's letter recorded in G.O., No. 409, Revenue, dated 7th April 1885, viz., that the period of six months sanctioned for a temporary establishment should be calculated from the date of the first entertainment of any portion of the establishment.

2. I am of opinion, however, that in such cases objections like the present may be waived when no extra charge to Government is involved, and that sanction accorded by Government for a specified period, say six months, may be accepted as for 180 days more or less, so long as the work is reasonably continuous.

READ—the following papers:—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), Mis. No. 6060, dated 4th December 1895.

Read—the following letter from F. A. NICHOLSON, Esq., Collector of Anantapur, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated 25th November 1895, Ref. on C. No. 3051:—

The Board in Board's Proceedings, Mis. No. 2510 (Land Revenue), dated 9th May 1894, communicated Government Order, Revenue Department, sanctioning the entertainment of a temporary establishment of one clerk on Rs 15 for three months for the arrangement of records in the Anantapur Deputy Collector's office. Accordingly, the clerk was entertained from 20th August 1894, and the time allowed expired on the 19th November 1894. The Board again in Board's Proceedings, Mis. No. 6824 (Land Revenue), dated 11th December 1894, extended the original period by three months as requested in this office C. No. 3135, dated 16th November 1894. The sanction, for six months in all, expired on the 19th February 1895.

2. The Head-Quarter Deputy Collector in his letter, dated 17th November 1895, Ref. on C. No. 1831, reports that temporary establishment did not work continuously during the six months, but worked as noted in the margin owing to the change of hands in the general staff.

Name of clerk.	Date of joining.	Date of relief.	Period for which worked.
1. M. G. Suptha Rushi Iyer ..	20th Aug. 1894 ..	31st Aug. 1894 ..	M. D. 0 12

3. P. C. Govindasawmy Raju.	5th Dec. „ ..	11th Mar. 1895 ..	3 7
Total ..			5 31 or six months.

3. From the marginally-noted table, it is observed that the record establishment did not work from 14th November 1894 to 4th December 1894. On this ground, the Deputy Collector entertained the clerk for nineteen days * from 20th February 1895 to 11th March 1895, though the period of six months sanctioned in the Proceedings referred to above expired on the 19th February 1895; the establishment, however, has actually worked for not more than six months. Accordingly, the pay (Rs. 9-10-7) due to the clerk for the said period was drawn and paid to him.

4. The Accountant-General in his objection statement A.-A.Z./12 for June 1895 ordered the recovery of the amount, on the ground that the sanction for six months expired on the 19th February 1895. The amount was accordingly recovered and credited into the treasury.
