Most respectfully submitted with the following report—

The building here referred to is a tiled one to which is attached a sub-jail with 4 cells which are also of the same description. I think it would have cost about nearly Rs 3000 to construct, and that a monthly rental of Rs 5 may be paid which would suffice for keeping the building in repair.

about the old
Deputy Tahsildar's cutcherry at Madarpakkam, I have the honor to report for your information that the buildings are in fair preservation. Only during the last year or two they are falling into disrepair from sheer neglect. There is no way of shutting out intruders, and so the floors, &c, are being knocked to pieces.

of the buildings is about Rs 2200, and I consider 5 Rs per mensem a fair rental for them in that locality.

3. Situated as they are in the heart of the native town, none of these buildings is likely to be used as a travellers' rest house. They are, however, well suited for a hospital or dispensary. But as there is a Local Fund Dispensary already established at Sathiavedu, which is only 3 or 4 miles off, it seems improbable that another one will be opened at Madarparkham in the near future.

4. For the sake of the buildings themselves it would be better to rent them, than to allow them to remain in the neglected state they are now in.
