General.
Establishment.

READ—the following papers:—

From W. B. DEWINTON, Esq., Superintending Engineer, III Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated 2nd April 1897, No. 32 W.

I have the honour to bring to your notice that the time has arrived when the two special peripatetic accountants contemplated in paragraph 193, chapter XIII of the Famine Code, should be attached to this office to visit the Head-quarters and Sub-divisional and subordinate offices and to see that the initial accounts are specially in order, &c., and to request you will be good enough to obtain the necessary sanction of Government to the enclosed proposition statement. Their services will be required till the famine is over, and so the period up to which their services will be necessary has not been mentioned.

No. 1099 W., 28TH APRIL 1897.

Office-note from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 14th April 1897, No. 1237 D./E.

[Your office-note No. 2044 C., dated 9th April 1897.]

It was pointed out to the Superintending Engineer that the III Circle had already four additional accountants and three accounts clerks (in addition to the two clerks recently posted to Kurnool), and I enquired whether the two men now asked for by him could not be drawn from the Divisional offices. He says that the "accountants and accounts clerks referred to are already fully engaged in checking and compiling famine-relief works accounts and checking vouchers, the number of which is enormous, and it is impossible that they can be spared for the peripatetic work required under the Code."

2. I am also wholly unable to supply the two men from my existing staff, and recommend, therefore, that the two additional accountants asked for be sanctioned under Public Works Code I., I., 109, after which arrangements will be made to send two experienced men to the Superintending Engineer.

ORDER—No. 1099 W., dated 28th April 1897.

The employment of the extra establishment applied for in the statement submitted by the Superintending Engineer is sanctioned. The two temporary accountants will be employed in the Examiner's office, and the Examiner will post two experienced men to the Superintending Engineer's office.

2. This sanction has been registered as Provincial No. 9 W. of 1897-98, and classified as Establishment—Temporary.
