READ—the following papers:—

Telegram from the Superintending Engineer, I Circle, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated 19th April 1897.

Please instruct Examiner to post to Vizagapatam division an extra accountant to attend to famine accounts.

Office-note from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 27th April 1897, No. 1297 D./E.

[Your office-note No. 2244 C., dated 26th April 1897.]

An assistant accountant has been directed to proceed forthwith to Vizagapatam.

2. As there are no other assistant accountants now available, I would suggest, if any further requisitions for accountants are likely to be made on this office for famine purposes, that two appointments as accounts clerks on the temporary establishment be at once sanctioned for the Consulting Architect and Buckingham Canal divisions, to be there trained in accounts work and held in readiness for transfer. I propose a salary of Rs. 50 per mensem to each. The men will be nominated by me.

ORDER—No. 1203 W., dated 10th May 1897.

The proposal in paragraph 2 of the Examiner's note is approved, except as regards the rate of pay suggested. In G.O., No. 257 W., dated 22nd January 1896, the pay of permanent accounts clerks was fixed at Rs. 40 rising to Rs. 50 per mensem, and there seems no reason why the temporary accounts clerks now asked for should begin on a higher rate than Rs. 40. Two appointments as accounts clerks on the temporary establishment on Rs. 40 each per mensem, are therefore sanctioned*—one for the Consulting Architect and one for the Buckingham Canal division. The men

The men will be trained in accounts work and held in readiness for transfer to famine duty. When their transfer becomes necessary, the question of granting them pay at Rs. 50 per mensem will be considered.
