My dear Sir,
With reference to your telephone message of to-day about the number of copies on the Godavery System available, will you kindly ask Hill to hold on to his copies and not sell them, pending further orders.
His forty^{copies} I suppose, would be available to be sent to England, & would probably meet all demands.

Yours sincerely,

L. S. M.

For Ca

At the time of publication the R.M. I said they would send 25 copies to the Secy. of State. The copies for Sir Alex Leaburn are to be sent through the India Office - the orders regarding direct distribution do not therefore apply.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,

Cotacaimund.

17 April 1897.

18.97

My dear Sir,

You will remember that you said there were 40 copies of Walsh's Report of the Godavari Irrigation works available in the Govt. Press. Sir Alexander Arbuthnot has asked for 40 copies to be sent home. Will you therefore kindly take steps to have these 40 copies packed and despatched to the India Office, addressed to Sir Alexander Arbuthnot.

His Excellency will at the same time write per-

Locally to Sir Alcock and tell him that they are coming;
and that the India Office must make arrangements to distribute them to the various bodies and persons concerned.

Yours sincerely

H. A. Hume
