Order thereon, Press No. 363 dated 20th May 1897.

The Government understands that it will be necessary in the district of Ganjam to undertake the construction and repair of village tanks as relief works in remote zemindari villages. No estimates are however ready for any of these works and as the formal sanction to them in the regular course will involve considerable delay the Board of Revenue is authorized to order the opening of such of them as it considers necessary for purposes of relief in anticipation of sanction.
