Sir,

I have the honor to forward a letter from Mrs. R. Atkinson the landlady of the house "West erfield" which was engaged by the P.W. Department for the Military Asst. Surgeon, attached to Madras Command, Head Quarters, calling upon me to request Asst. Surgeon M. Bowen to vacate "Westerfield" by the 1st April 1897.

Will you please therefore take the necessary action to provide another house for the Asst.
Surgeon by the 1st April 1897.

I may mention that there is a suitable house "Sunayside" situated in a central locality just now vacant, the land

Lord is Meanji said $\text{Rs } 6\frac{3}{4}$ if not engaged at once it will be occupied soon and as house accommodation is very hard to obtain in Cozy, I would request you will kindly adopt prompt measures to secure this house at once.

It is quite impossible to secure a suitable house in Cozy for the rent that Asst. Surgeon M. Banner is entitled to viz. Rs. 30 per month, and if he is to leave "Westerfield", I consider it absolutely necessary, in the interests of the service, that this house be engaged for him, or give him back the public building on Jail Hill which has been occupied for years by the Medical Subordinate attached to Madras Command, Head Quarters.

It is highly desirable that early action be taken in this matter. I therefore trust you you will kindly secure proper accommodation for the Asst.

Surgeon. The rent of "Lawryside" is Rs. 50 per month 10 Rupees less than that of "Westerfield". This would effect a saving of Rs. 10 per month to Government.
