G.O., No. 540, Public, dated 11th May 1897.

Read—the following letter from the Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, dated 23rd April 1897, No. 1130 B.:—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letters noted on the margin, submitting applications from Volunteer Corps in Madras for grants for building armouries, sergeant instructors' quarters, &c.

2. In reply I am directed to state, for the information of the Governor in Council, that these applications were considered with those received from other Volunteer Corps for allotments from the provision made in the estimates of 1897-98 for Volunteer buildings, and that grants of Rs. 1,150 and Rs. 600 were sanctioned for the Yercaud Rifle Volunteers and the South Indian Railway Volunteer Corps, respectively, in Military Department letter, No. 889 B., dated 18th March 1897.

3. The Government of India regret they are unable to assist the corps marginally named by a grant during the present financial year.

East Coast Rifle Volunteers.
Southern Mahratta Railway Volunteer Rifle Corps.
Malabar Volunteer Rifles.

4. With regard to the re-allotments of the sum of Rs. 3,200 for the construction of an armoury and magazine for the South Indian Railway Volunteer Corps at Pākala, applied for in your letter, No. 368, dated the 2nd April 1897, I am directed to state that the Government of India cannot now consider any applications for grants, as all allotments from the provision made in the estimates of 1897-98 for Volunteer buildings have already been made in the Military Department letter above referred to. I am, however, to suggest that the application in question may be resubmitted towards the end of December next, when the question of an allotment to the South Indian Railway Volunteer Corps from the provision in the estimates of 1898-99 will be taken into consideration.

5. The plans and estimates received with your letters under reply are herewith returned.

Order—No. 540, Public, dated 11th May 1897.

Communicated with the enclosures in original, in continuation of G.O., No. 365, Public, dated 2nd April 1897, and with reference to G.O., No. 367, Public, dated 2nd April 1897, to the Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, for the information of His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces.
