G.O., No. 630, Public, dated 16th June 1896.

Letter from the Chief Secretary to Government, to the Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, dated 16th November 1896, No. 1223.

I have the honour to invite your attention to paragraph 2 of the letter from the Government of India recorded in G.O., No. 630, Public, dated 16th June 1896, a copy of which is attached, and to suggest that, in future, correspondence intended for this Government may be forwarded direct to the Secretary in the department to which the subject under reference relates, instead of to the Chief Secretary in every case, as is at present the practice. This appears to be the intention of the letter referred to above, and the adoption of the system suggested would obviate unnecessary delays.

READ—the following paper :—

From Colonel M. J. KING-HARMAN, Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India, dated Simla, the 21st May 1896, No. 1359-B.

I am directed to state, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India have had under consideration the question of the manner in which correspondence is to be carried on between the Lieutenant-Generals Commanding the Forces, Punjab, Bengal, Madras and Bombay, and Local Governments or Administrations and Political officers.

2. It has been decided that, in future, all official correspondence between the Lieutenant-Generals and the Local Governments and Administrations shall be carried on between the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Command and the Secretaries to the Local Government or Administration concerned; and that as regards Political officers, Residents of the 1st class and Agents to Governor-General* shall be addressed by the Deputy Adjutant-General through their 1st Assistants; other Political officers being addressed direct.

- * 1. The Resident at Hyderabad.
- 2. The Resident in Mysore.
- 3. The Agent to the Governor-General in Rajputana.
- 4. The Agent to the Governor-General in Central India.
- 5. The Agent to the Governor-General in Baluchistan.
