In support of my verbal report on the 11th Inst. I have the honour to intimate herewith my arrival on the afternoon of the 11th
Inst. for duty.

Just: for duty.

With reference to the extent of my leave I have the honour to offer the following explanation.

£ Cash of

I handed over the Cash of the Godavari Eastern Dⁿ. to Mr. Houndcock on the morning of the 27th November, the day after he arrived, under the impression that the transfer was not complete till all the papers were filled in. Finding this was not the case I occupied my going time in finishing handing over and clearing up some arrears (at the time I had a Sub Dⁿ. in addition to my division). Consequently my leave began on the 4th December morning and the 28 days applied for expired on the 1st January.

expired on the 1st January
meanwhile I applied for all the leave available to me, i.e. 63 days which left a balance of 35 days from 1st

1st January.

Thus the privilege leave applied for expired on the 5th February. I was under the impression and others whom I consulted agreed with me, that it was possible to join late, provided the overstay did not exceed a week, up to which time it counted as leave on loss of pay. I accordingly did so.

I may add that I should have arrived for duty two days sooner had it not been that I was ^{unable} ~~made~~ to cash my pay cheque.

The first day, because the Accountant did not attend office till 11 am. (his regular hour) which made it too late for me to catch the midday train.

The second day owing to the Treasury Dy. Collector not being in the treasury in time to cash it.

I trust that my explanation will be considered satisfactory as the overstay was entirely due to a misconception on my part.

for favour of remarks.

1st W. L. C. Baddeley, Major R.E.
Supg Engr. II Civil.

Letter from D. C. Gordon Esq. Examiner of P. W. Accounts, Madras, to the Supg Engr. II Civil, dated 9.3.97. No 772 H.E.

In the Salary bill of Godanery Eastern D. for November 1896 Mr. Romilly is said to have been relieved of his duties on the forenoon of 26.11.96 but in his letter dated 10.2.97 forwarded with your endorsement No. 3372 H.E. of 24.2.97 he states that he was not relieved until after 4th Decem. forenoon. I have therefore the honour to request that you will be good enough to state the actual date on which you consider he was relieved and the actual date he availed himself of his leave.

2. Information as to the actual date, ^{and hour} of Mr. Romilly's return to duty from leave is also requested to enable this office to report on the overstay if any.
