Most kind Sir,

With reference to your memo no 185 of 8 April 1897 received by me this day I respectfully beg to submit that the period of probation in the Police Department is two years and that there are several cases in which employees of other Departments who were appointed as Inspectors of Police have been given a lien on their permanent posts for 2 years and that lastly I have come across with Govt order no 382 Financial of 18 June 1896 sanctioning for two men of the Anantapur Collectorate to retain a lien on their permanent appointments until the close of the probationary period in the new appointment as determined by the head of that Department.

As I am likewise entitled for the indulgence, in as much as I worked for nearly 5 years to the satisfaction of the your honor will be pleased, with your

the Probationary period in the Police Dept.

For which act of kindness I shall feel highly obliged.
