"Indian Engineering."

3, BARRETTO'S LANE,

Calcutta, 1/11/1896.

My Sir
Thanks for your letter of the 26th Nov.
The 4 copies taken by Mr. Gordon for —
✓ 1. The Agricultural College
✓ 2. Consulting Eng.
✓ 3. Sanitary Commission
✓ 4. Secy. P.W.D.

So that the P.W.D. only takes one single copy.

If you can keep me
with advertisements I shall be glad & obliged.
I subscribe to the Fort
St. George Gazette and Providence

P.W.D.

note for Mr. Gordon

The Calcutta Engineer paper called the "Indian & Eastern Engineer" is supplied to Super Engineers, but not "Indian Engineering". The latter publication frequently contains useful information which would be of interest to officers of the Dept., & the supply of a copy to each Super Engineer is recommended.

In 1889, "Indian Engineering" was removed from the list of newspapers & periodicals to which official papers
marked "Editor's Table" are supplied, because it was then constantly
obtaining by illegitimate means & publishing.
Under official documents not marked "E. I." — it has now ceased to

offend in this way, & it is thought that it might be restored to the list.

So you have sets
actually issued as much from me for publications as I do from them!

Please put up the documents from which you got the 5 copies - but Doyle mentions 4 only.

I am sorry in the Case of the I.I. & I think they might be with the India Office. When in London before this in it, then some other 7 letter office.

Before preparing draft
on this paper, I submit for perusal letter to Mr Doyle from Col.
Droghda Macdonald of 29784 of 21.10.87
relative to the unauthorised publication of certain Govt.
Papers in Indian Engineering.
With this letter, Mr

Doyle sent a very elaborate reply, &
Govt. then (in Public Dept) ordered "Indian Engineering" to be struck off the list of newspapers & periodicals to which
"G.I." papers are sent.

At that time Govt.
Papers not marked "G.I."
were constantly appearing in Indian Engineering, & it was this fact I think which influenced the Dept in ordering so few copies of the paper, while

Copies of the Indian & British Magazine were obtained for all Supl. Supl.

Mr. Doyle's paper
has ceased to appear,
if copies are now to be ordered for Supl.
Supl., it may perhaps be considered at the same time whether
it may not be related to the "S. & T." list
