To

The Genl. Superintendent
Public Works Workshop & Stores
Madras.

Sir,

We, the undersigned, daily paid workmen employed in the P.W. Workshop and Stores Division, respectfully beg that the general Superintendent will be graciously pleased to recommend to Government that we may be granted pay for the 21st & 22nd June 1897, the days during which the Workshop & Stores will be closed in honour of the Diamond Jubilee of Her most gracious Majesty the Queen & Empress of India. A similar concession was granted to us by Government for the 16th & 17th February 1897, the holidays given in honour of the Jubilee, vide G.O. 12712.W, dated 8th March 1897.

We beg to remain
