Viceroy, and on the Agent applying to the Supdt. of Telegraphs, Madras Division, for permission to carry out the work, it was given on the understanding that it was a temporary arrangement.

2. The connection however has since continued, but the necessity of obtaining the sanction of the Govt. of India thereto has been overlooked. As the connection of Govt. House, Madras, with the Oriental Telephone Company's Exchange has proved to be a great convenience, I am directed to request that the sanction of the Govt. of India may be accorded to its continuance.

I have &c.

should be made to the Govt. of India for sanction to a continuance of the connection of Govt. House, Madras, with the Oriental Telephone Co.'s Exchange.

2. Some delay has occurred in submitting this question for orders, owing to difficulty in tracing the Govt. Resolution quoted by the Supdt. of Telegraphs. It is now found that it is an endorsement in the Public Dept. on G.O. No. 2318 W, dated 20th September 1884, under which the connection of Govt. buildings with licensed telephone companies is prohibited.

27th May 1897.

Referring to your indent No.1 dated 11th January 1897, items 428/30, "Brass rings for windows", I have the honour to inform you that it is not clear whether drop flush rings are required, or merely ordinary rings fitted with a screw. The estimated price given in the indent is too high for the latter and too low for the former.

I shall therefore be obliged by your furnishing me with a sketch of the things required.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

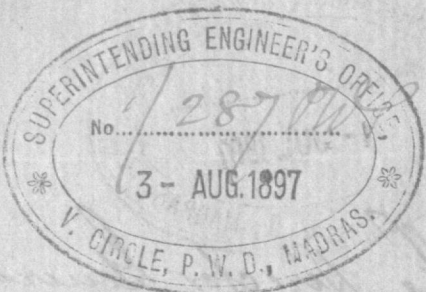

Your obedient Servant,

Chant Sur.
