PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following paper:—

From the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature,
Madras, Ref. on Cur. No. 1547 of 1897, dated 10th July 1897:-

I am directed to forward herewith a copy of letter No.825, dated 25rd June 1897, from the District Judge of Coimbatore, forwarding a sketch and a plan showing the alterations it is proposed to make in the Sub-Judge's ^{court} build- ing in the Nilgiris and to request that should the Government approve it, it may be pleased to direct the Public Works Department to prepare the necessary plans and estimate, so that the work may be carried out when the present financial difficulties are over.

2. I am to say that the High Court considers that the proposed additions (with the exception of a private room for the Sheristadar) are necessary.

Order, No.1124, dated 7th August 1897.

The Government agrees with the High Court in considering that a private room for the Sheristadar is unnecessary. The preparation of plans and estimates for the other works proposed is approved and the further orders necessary will be issued in the Public Works Department.
