READ—the following paper:—

From J. C. LARMINIE, Esq., M.I.C.E., Superintending Engineer, I Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated 11th January 1897, No. 1011 G.N.

I have the honour to bring to your notice that, owing to the abolition of the Assistant Sea Customs Superintendent's office at Pudi in the Ganjám district, the building known as Sea Customs house at Pudi has become vacant from the 10th July 1896 and that it has been under the charge of this department.

2. The Postmaster-General, Madras, informed the Superintendent of Post Offices, Vizagapatam division, that the building in question may be occupied by his department for locating in it the branch post office at that place, and the Postal Superintendent asked the Executive Engineer, Ganjám division, to arrange for its transfer to the Postal Department. I therefore request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to transfer the building to the Postal Department as it is not required by this or any other department.
