GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 1095, Public, dated 3rd October 1896

G.O., R. No. 192, Public, dated 15th February 1897.

Read—the following letter from F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 18th December 1896, No. 3908:—

With reference to paragraph 4 of G.O., No. 1095, dated the 3rd of October 1896, I have the honour to state that the following omissions are noticed in the appendix to the order:—

(1) Purchase of warm clothing for the establishment of the Agent to the Governor in Ganjám, sanctioned in G.O., No. 1667, Judicial, dated 7th September 1892—annual limit Rs. 736-10-8.

(2) Purchase of warm clothing for the establishment of the Agent to the Governor in Vizagapatam, sanctioned in G.Os., No. 1667, Judicial, dated 7th September 1892, and No. 1111, Judicial, dated 14th July 1896—annual allotment Rs. 1,287-10-8.

(3) Supply of warm clothing once in three years to the peon of the District Medical and Sanitary officer, Vizagapatam, sanctioned in G.O., No. 299, Public, dated 19th April 1890—cost Rs. 20.

(4) Supply of warm clothing to the peons of the Agency establishment, Gódávari, sanctioned in G.O., No. 762, Public, dated 23rd July 1896—annual cost Rs. 746-10-8.

(5) Supply of warm clothing to the peons of the Registration offices at Vayittiri and Manantoddy, sanctioned in G.O., No. 766, Public, dated 24th July 1896—annual cost Rs. 10.

(6) Supply of liveries to the two peons attached to the Assistant Secretary to the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), sanctioned in G.O., No. 809, Public, dated 6th August 1896.

(7) Supply of cotton and woollen clothing to the boat crew of the port establishment sanctioned in G.Os., Nos. 354 and 370, Marine, dated 9th October 1890, and 7th July 1894, respectively.

(8) Supply of warm clothing to the orderlies of the Inspector of Salt and Abkári Revenue, Coimbatore Circle, sanctioned in G.O., No. 3815, Revenue, dated 17th October 1893.

(9) Biennial supply of warm clothing to the four peons of the District Forest office, Vizagapatam, sanctioned in G.O., No. 2396, Revenue, dated 18th June 1896—cost Rs. 12 per peon.

(10) Supply of warm clothing to the peons of the Forest Settlement-officers sanctioned in G.O., No. 435, Revenue, dated 22nd January 1892—annual cost Rs. 8 per peon.

2. A list showing the supply of liveries and warm clothing to the Secretariat establishments revised up to date is enclosed.

3. I would also observe that the number of peons of the Wynaad Tahsildar's office, for whom supply of warm clothing has been sanctioned, should be "22" instead of "21" as shown in the appendix. The sanction accorded in G.O., No. 84, Revenue, dated 15th January 1894, for the supply of warm clothing to one peon was apparently not taken into account.

4. The entry "Sub-Assistant Inspector of Girls' Schools, Fifth Range," occurring at the bottom of page 8 of the Order, should also be altered to "Sub-Assistant Inspector of Girls' Schools, Sixth Range," according to the redistribution of ranges made by the Director of Public Instruction in his Proceedings, No. 12443, dated 13th November 1893.

5. The number of peons of the Deputy Tahsildar's office at Vayittiri, for whom warm clothing was sanctioned in G.O., No. 542, Revenue, dated 7th August 1888, is only 2, whereas "4 peons" have been entered in the appendix. No warm clothing has been sanctioned for the two peons subsequently added to the establishment.

6. In G.O., No. 4928, Revenue, dated 15th September 1891, quoted against "Collector of Malabar" on page 6 of the present order, sanction was accorded for the supply of warm clothing to the peons and masalchis who then accompanied the Collector to Wynaad at a cost of Rs. 50-3-0, with the remark that the suit would last for three years. General sanction to the charge would therefore seem to be necessary.

Order—R. No. 192, Public, dated 15th February 1897.

In his letter read above, the Accountant-General brings to notice certain omissions from the appendix to G.O., No. 1095, Public, dated 3rd October 1896. Of these, items (1) (2) and (4) were intentional, as the Judicial Department had been requested to furnish a consolidated list for the Agency tracts.

2. Item (5) has already been entered with reference to G.O., No. 1245, dated 27th November 1896, it having been pointed out by the Inspector-General of Registration. Omissions (3), (7), (8), (9) and (10) will be rectified. They were due to the Government orders not having been available in the Public department. Certain other details have since been furnished by the Board of Revenue. A revised list will issue shortly.

3. With reference to item (6), it is observed that, in accordance with G.O., No. 286, Public, dated 27th April 1894, liveries are supplied to fifteen peons only including the jemadar and duffadar. As two peons were added by G.O., No. 809, Public, dated 6th August 1896, the number 17 inclusive, given in the appendix to G.O., No. 1095, Public, dated 3rd October 1896, is correct.

4. With reference to paragraph 2 of the Accountant-General's letter, it is observed that a revised list for the Secretariat establishments was issued with G.O., No. 1065, Public, dated 25th September 1896, a copy of which will now be furnished to the Accountant-General. In his list the Accountant-General gives Rs. 40 and Rs. 20 as the maximum cost of white clothing for chobdars and peons respectively of the Chief and Revenue Secretariats, but these sums were reduced to Rs. 38 and Rs. 18 by paragraph 6 of G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894. It is not understood why the cost of white clothing for the peons of the Local and Municipal department has been entered by the Accountant-General as Rs. 18-8-0. G.O., No. 1258, Public, dated 27th November 1896, fixed no figure, as the intention was that it should be the same as that allowed for the other departments of the Secretariat. There is no prescribed establishment for warm clothing as shown in the Accountant-General's list. Only the requisite number of menials is taken to the hills and each has to be clothed. The establishment varies from year to year. With reference to item "one gollah," it is observed that the post of gollah was abolished when the peons' establishment was re-organized.

5. The corrections indicated by the Accountant-General in paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 of his letter will be carried out. The "4 peons" referred to in paragraph 5 were entered on the authority of the Board of Revenue, whose attention will be drawn to the matter with reference to its Proceedings, Mis. No. 1458, dated 26th March 1896.

6. With advertence to paragraph 6 of his letter, the Accountant-General will be informed that the sanction accorded in G.O., No. 4928, Revenue, dated 15th September 1891, was intended to be continuous.

G.O., Mis. No. 606, Public, dated 19th May 1897.

Read—the following papers:—

From W. H. MICHAEL, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 24th March 1897, No. 986.

With reference to G.O., No. 192-R., dated the 15th of February 1897, I have the honour to submit the following explanations:—

In paragraph 3 of the above Government Order it is stated that liveries are supplied to fifteen peons only including the jamadar and daffadar. But from G.O., No. 568, Public, dated 20th May 1874 and G.O., No. 286, Public, dated 27th April 1894, it will be seen that Government first sanctioned the supply of liveries to one jamadar, one daffadar and ten peons, and that, when in 1894 the Board of Revenue requested sanction for the supply of liveries to sixteen peons besides the jamadar and the daffadar, Government ordered that " in future fifteen peons of the Land Revenue Department will receive liveries." As the jamadar and the daffadar were excluded from the term " peons " both in the first order and in the application of the Board of Revenue, this office interpreted the latter order to refer to fifteen peons excluding the jamadar and the daffadar. As, however, Government has now stated in the order under reply that fifteen peons included the jamadar and the daffadar, the necessary correction will now be made.

With reference to the remarks in paragraph 4 I would observe that, as paragraph 6 of G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894, in which the maximum cost of white clothing to chobdars and peons was fixed at Rs. 38 and Rs. 18, respectively, referred only to clothing supplied to peons employed in the offices of the Board of Revenue, this office was under the impression that the limit therein fixed applied only to those offices and not to Secretariat or other departments. As it has now been pointed out that the limit is a general one applicable to all offices, the rate will now be altered in the statement.

For the reasons above given the cost of clothing supplied to peons of the Local and Municipal Department of the Secretariat was retained at Rs. 18–8–0, the rate fixed in the statement appended to G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894. It will now be reduced to Rs. 18 per head.

With reference to the remark that " there is no prescribed establishment for warm clothing," I beg to invite your attention to the statement appended to G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894, from which you will observe that warm clothing was sanctioned for thirty-nine persons in the Chief Secretariat (excluding one daffadar and two peons of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief whose services have since been dispensed with) and for fifteen persons in the Revenue Secretariat and though as stated in the order under reply " only the requisite number of menials is taken to the hills " and the establishment so taken " varies from year to year ", it seems advisable to fix the maximum number of men who may be taken to the hills in any year so as to enable this office to pass charges on account of warm clothing up to the maximum limit so fixed.

The " gollah " referred to in the last sentence of paragraph 4 will be removed from the statement as his appointment was abolished when the peons' establishment was reorganized.

Office-note No. 31.

With reference to O.N. No. 823, dated 7th April 1897, the undersigned has the honour to forward a statement showing the number of peons and other menial servants who have received warm clothing of each sort from 1894 to 1897.

Ag. Secretary to Government.

* Two of the elephants died, hence the difference of number, i.e., 4, between that sanctioned in Government Order and that herein shown.

† In the Government Order under reference, allowance is sanctioned for nine menial servants of the Senior Assistant Agent; but the bulk of the Agency tracts formerly under that officer having been transferred subsequently in 1893 to the Special Assistant Agent, it is unnecessary to take the whole establishment to the hills, and consequently the three peons on the Agency establishment are being taken to hills and given each Rs. 10 per annum for warm clothing.

Liveries.

Revising the list of sanctions for the supply of — to the inferior servants of Government, printed with G.O., No. 1095, Public, dated 3rd October 1896.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 1095, Public, dated 3rd October 1896

G.O., R. No. 192, Public, dated 15th February 1897.

Read—the following letter from F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 18th December 1896, No. 3908:—

With reference to paragraph 4 of G.O., No. 1095, dated the 3rd of October 1896, I have the honour to state that the following omissions are noticed in the appendix to the order:—

(1) Purchase of warm clothing for the establishment of the Agent to the Governor in Ganjám, sanctioned in G.O., No. 1667, Judicial, dated 7th September 1892—annual limit Rs. 736–10–8.

(2) Purchase of warm clothing for the establishment of the Agent to the Governor in Vizagapatam, sanctioned in G.Os., No. 1667, Judicial, dated 7th September 1892, and No. 1111, Judicial, dated 14th July 1896—annual allotment Rs. 1,287–10–8.

(3) Supply of warm clothing once in three years to the peon of the District Medical and Sanitary officer, Vizagapatam, sanctioned in G.O., No. 299, Public, dated 19th April 1890—cost Rs. 20.

(4) Supply of warm clothing to the peons of the Agency establishment, Gódávari, sanctioned in G.O., No. 762, Public, dated 23rd July 1896—annual cost Rs. 746–10–8.

(5) Supply of warm clothing to the peons of the Registration offices at Vayittiri and Manantoddy, sanctioned in G.O., No. 766, Public, dated 24th July 1896—annual cost Rs. 10.

(6) Supply of liveries to the two peons attached to the Assistant Secretary to the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), sanctioned in G.O., No. 809, Public, dated 6th August 1896.

(7) Supply of cotton and woollen clothing to the boat crew of the port establishment sanctioned in G.Os., Nos. 354 and 370, Marine, dated 9th October 1890, and 7th July 1894, respectively.

(8) Supply of warm clothing to the orderlies of the Inspector of Salt and Abkári Revenue, Coimbatore Circle, sanctioned in G.O., No. 3815, Revenue, dated 17th October 1893.

(9) Biennial supply of warm clothing to the four peons of the District Forest office, Vizagapatam, sanctioned in G.O., No. 2396, Revenue, dated 18th June 1896—cost Rs. 12 per peon.

(10) Supply of warm clothing to the peons of the Forest Settlement-officers sanctioned in G.O., No. 435, Revenue, dated 22nd January 1892—annual cost Rs. 8 per peon.

2. A list showing the supply of liveries and warm clothing to the Secretariat establishments revised up to date is enclosed.

3. I would also observe that the number of peons of the Wynaad Tahsildar's office, for whom supply of warm clothing has been sanctioned, should be "22" instead of "21" as shown in the appendix. The sanction accorded in G.O., No. 84, Revenue, dated 15th January 1894, for the supply of warm clothing to one peon was apparently not taken into account.

4. The entry "Sub-Assistant Inspector of Girls' Schools, Fifth Range," occurring at the bottom of page 8 of the Order, should also be altered to "Sub-Assistant Inspector of Girls' Schools, Sixth Range," according to the redistribution of ranges made by the Director of Public Instruction in his Proceedings, No. 12443, dated 13th November 1893.

5. The number of peons of the Deputy Tahsildar's office at Vayittiri, for whom warm clothing was sanctioned in G.O., No. 542, Revenue, dated 7th August 1888, is only 2, whereas "4 peons" have been entered in the appendix. No warm clothing has been sanctioned for the two peons subsequently added to the establishment.

6. In G.O., No. 4928, Revenue, dated 15th September 1891, quoted against "Collector of Malabar" on page 6 of the present order, sanction was accorded for the supply of warm clothing to the peons and masalchis who then accompanied the Collector to Wynaad at a cost of Rs. 50–3–0, with the remark that the suit would last for three years. General sanction to the charge would therefore seem to be necessary.

Order—R. No. 192, Public, dated 15th February 1897.

In his letter read above, the Accountant-General brings to notice certain omissions from the appendix to G.O., No. 1095, Public, dated 3rd October 1896. Of these, items (1) (2) and (4) were intentional, as the Judicial Department had been requested to furnish a consolidated list for the Agency tracts.

2. Item (5) has already been entered with reference to G.O., No. 1245, dated 27th November 1896, it having been pointed out by the Inspector-General of Registration. Omissions (3), (7), (8), (9) and (10) will be rectified. They were due to the Government orders not having been available in the Public department. Certain other details have since been furnished by the Board of Revenue. A revised list will issue shortly.

3. With reference to item (6), it is observed that, in accordance with G.O., No. 286, Public, dated 27th April 1894, liveries are supplied to fifteen peons only including the jemadar and duffadar. As two peons were added by G.O., No. 809, Public, dated 6th August 1896, the number 17 inclusive, given in the appendix to G.O., No. 1095, Public, dated 3rd October 1896, is correct.

4. With reference to paragraph 2 of the Accountant-General's letter, it is observed that a revised list for the Secretariat establishments was issued with G.O., No. 1065, Public, dated 25th September 1896, a copy of which will now be furnished to the Accountant-General. In his list the Accountant-General gives Rs. 40 and Rs. 20 as the maximum cost of white clothing for chobdars and peons respectively of the Chief and Revenue Secretariats, but these sums were reduced to Rs. 38 and Rs. 18 by paragraph 6 of G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894. It is not understood why the cost of white clothing for the peons of the Local and Municipal department has been entered by the Accountant-General as Rs. 18–8–0. G.O., No. 1258, Public, dated 27th November 1896, fixed no figure, as the intention was that it should be the same as that allowed for the other departments of the Secretariat. There is no prescribed establishment for warm clothing as shown in the Accountant-General's list. Only the requisite number of menials is taken to the hills and each has to be clothed. The establishment varies from year to year. With reference to item "one gollah," it is observed that the post of gollah was abolished when the peons' establishment was re-organized.

5. The corrections indicated by the Accountant-General in paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 of his letter will be carried out. The "4 peons" referred to in paragraph 5 were entered on the authority of the Board of Revenue, whose attention will be drawn to the matter with reference to its Proceedings, Mis. No. 1458, dated 26th March 1896.

6. With advertence to paragraph 6 of his letter, the Accountant-General will be informed that the sanction accorded in G.O., No. 4928, Revenue, dated 15th September 1891, was intended to be continuous.

G.O., Mis. No. 606, Public, dated 19th May 1897.

Read—the following papers:—

From W. H. MICHAEL, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 24th March 1897, No. 986.

With reference to G.O., No. 192-R., dated the 15th of February 1897, I have the honour to submit the following explanations:—

In paragraph 3 of the above Government Order it is stated that liveries are supplied to fifteen peons only including the jamadar and daffadar. But from G.O., No. 568, Public, dated 20th May 1874 and G.O., No. 286, Public, dated 27th April 1894, it will be seen that Government first sanctioned the supply of liveries to one jamadar, one daffadar and ten peons, and that, when in 1894 the Board of Revenue requested sanction for the supply of liveries to sixteen peons besides the jamadar and the daffadar, Government ordered that " in future fifteen peons of the Land Revenue Department will receive liveries." As the jamadar and the daffadar were excluded from the term " peons " both in the first order and in the application of the Board of Revenue, this office interpreted the latter order to refer to fifteen peons excluding the jamadar and the daffadar. As, however, Government has now stated in the order under reply that fifteen peons included the jamadar and the daffadar, the necessary correction will now be made.

With reference to the remarks in paragraph 4 I would observe that, as paragraph 6 of G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894, in which the maximum cost of white clothing to chobdars and peons was fixed at Rs. 38 and Rs. 18, respectively, referred only to clothing supplied to peons employed in the offices of the Board of Revenue, this office was under the impression that the limit therein fixed applied only to those offices and not to Secretariat or other departments. As it has now been pointed out that the limit is a general one applicable to all offices, the rate will now be altered in the statement.

For the reasons above given the cost of clothing supplied to peons of the Local and Municipal Department of the Secretariat was retained at Rs. 18–8–0, the rate fixed in the statement appended to G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894. It will now be reduced to Rs. 18 per head.

With reference to the remark that " there is no prescribed establishment for warm clothing," I beg to invite your attention to the statement appended to G.O., No. 26, Public, dated 13th January 1894, from which you will observe that warm clothing was sanctioned for thirty-nine persons in the Chief Secretariat (excluding one daffadar and two peons of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief whose services have since been dispensed with) and for fifteen persons in the Revenue Secretariat and though as stated in the order under reply " only the requisite number of menials is taken to the hills " and the establishment so taken " varies from year to year ", it seems advisable to fix the maximum number of men who may be taken to the hills in any year so as to enable this office to pass charges on account of warm clothing up to the maximum limit so fixed.

The " gollah " referred to in the last sentence of paragraph 4 will be removed from the statement as his appointment was abolished when the peons' establishment was reorganized.

Office-note No. 31.

With reference to O.N. No. 823, dated 7th April 1897, the undersigned has the honour to forward a statement showing the number of peons and other menial servants who have received warm clothing of each sort from 1894 to 1897.

* Two of the elephants died, hence the difference of number, i.e., 4, between that sanctioned in Government Order and that herein shown.

† In the Government Order under reference, allowance is sanctioned for nine menial servants of the Senior Assistant Agent; but the bulk of the Agency tracts formerly under that officer having been transferred subsequently in 1893 to the Special Assistant Agent, it is unnecessary to take the whole establishment to the hills, and consequently the three peons on the Agency establishment are being taken to hills and given each Rs. 10 per annum for warm clothing.
