READ—the following papers:—

From W. C. LEWIS, Esq., Executive Engineer, Kistna Western division, to the Superintending Engineer, II Circle, dated 28th July 1897, No. 157 S.

The Executive Engineer reports that this sanction was received by him about the end of July 1897 and that as the irrigation season has commenced and the whole country is under water, surveying cannot be satisfactorily carried out. He therefore requests sanction to the employment of only 2 surveyors from August to 31 December 1897 and of 6 surveyors from 1 January to 30 June 1898 which is the best season for surveying. The E.E.'s present proposals entail an expenditure of Rs. 1624 in excess of that sanctioned in G.O.
