OCTOBER.

33. Famine Relief

Government of India endorsement forwarding copy of correspondence regarding the opening of certain minor heads under the major head — for expenditure on gratuitous and other relief to people when, for special reasons, this mode of relief is entrusted to Public Works disbursers, communicated to officers of the Public Works Department.

No. 2830 W., 11TH OCTOBER 1897.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

General.
Account.

READ—the following paper:—

From A. R. BECHER, Esq., Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (Account—General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 8th September 1897, No. 196 A.G.

The Governments of Madras and Bombay (General and Railway), Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, Punjab and Burma.
The Chief Commissioners of the Central Provinces, Assam and Coorg.
The Resident at Hyderabad.
The Agents to the Governor-General for Central India, Rajputana and Baluchistan.
The Superintendent of Port Blair and Chief Commissioner, Andaman and Nicobar Islands.
The Director-General of Military Works.
The Director-General of Telegraphs.
The Director-in-Chief, Indo-European Telegraph Department.
The Director-General of Railways.
The Consulting Engineers to the Government of India for Railways, Calcutta, Lucknow, and Assam.

The under-mentioned paper is forwarded to Local Governments and Administrations noted on the margin, for information and guidance.

2. Expenditure on gratuitous and other relief to people not employed on relief-works is generally incurred by Civil officers not acting as Public Works disbursers. The minor heads under the major head 33. Famine relief noted in the letter circulated with this endorsement, should only be opened in the Public Works Accounts, when, for special reasons, this mode of relief is entrusted to Public Works disbursers.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Government of India, Public Works Department, to the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, dated 22nd May 1897, No. 98 A.G.

With reference to your endorsement, No. 276 G. of the 19th April 1897, I am directed to state that, as it is desirable that all expenditure on famine relief incurred by Public Works disbursers should be brought to account directly, the expenditure of Rs. . . . incurred by Civil officers acting as Public Works disbursers in the Punjab on gratuitous and other relief to people not employed on relief-works and the establishments and miscellaneous charges connected therewith, should be adjusted in the Public Works Accounts.

2. To enable the Examiner to bring this expenditure to account on his books, he should open the following minor heads under the major head 33. Famine relief:—

Salaries and establishment other than that connected with relief-works.
Relief to people employed otherwise than on relief-works.
Gratuitous relief—

- (a) In Government institutions.
- (b) At the houses of the people.
- (c) In other ways.

Miscellaneous.
