G.O., No. 582, Public, dated 7th June 1888.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to the departments of the Secretariat letter from the Government of India requesting that, in future, all Government publications intended for Messrs. Trübner & Co., Agents for the India Office for the sale of books, may invariably be sent through the Secretary of State.

READ—also the following paper:—

Despatch from the Right Hon'ble Lord GEORGE HAMILTON, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 15th July 1897, No. 2 (Public Records).

With the view of making Indian Government publications better known and more accessible to the public, I have recently, at the instance of the Government of India, appointed the following agents on the Continent, viz.—

M. Ernest Leroux, of Paris.

M.M. Otto Harrassowitz and Karl Hiersemann, of Leipzig.

M.M. Friedlander & Co., of Berlin.

M. Martinus Nijhoff, of The Hague.

The several agents in this country are—

Mr. E. A. Arnold, 37, Bedford Street, Strand, London.

Messrs. Constable & Co., 2, Whitehall Gardens, London.

„ Sampson Low, Marston & Co., St. Dunstan's House, Fetter Lane, London.

„ Luzac & Co., 46, Great Russell Street, London.

„ Kegan Paul, Trench, Trübner & Co., Charing Cross Road, London.

Mr. B. Quaritch, 15, Piccadilly, London.

Messrs. P. S. King & Son, 12 and 14, King Street, Westminster.

Besides the above, Messrs. H. S. King & Co., of 65, Cornhill, are also agents for the sale of the Indian Army List.

The rate of commission allowed to these agents is $33\frac{1}{3}$ per cent. off the published price. In fixing the English prices of books published in India, the plan adopted is to convert the rupee at 1s. 4d., so as to give a small extra amount to cover cost of freight, &c., from India. In order to avoid fractions in the English prices, they will increase between 1s. 4d. and 2s. by not less than two pence at a time, and above 2s. by not less than six pence. In all cases it will be as well that the prices of books issued for publication in India should be printed on the title-pages, both in rupees and in English currency.
