To

W.

I beg to forward, herewith,
an application by me for one months Privilege leave with effect from 25th. November next.

Accountant General's (P.W.D.)
Circular No. XXXI dated 20th.
August 1894.

2. Under existing rules the certificate as to my title to the leave has to be given by my Senior Deputy Examiner, and this has been done.

3. My health requires a short rest from work and change of air, and hence the necessity for my application.

4. During my absence Major E. A. Waller R.E., Examiner Guaranteed Railway Accounts Madras, has kindly agreed to carry on my work if appointed to officiate for me in addition to his own duties.

5. I would accordingly ask the favour of ^{my} application being forwarded to Government of India with the recommendation of the Madras Government, and with mention of the fact stated in para 4 above.
