Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), Forest Mis. No. 1272, dated 15th September 1896.

Read—the following paper :—

From C. M. MULLALY, Esq., Collector of Kurnool, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated 4th August 1896, Dis. No. 433-Mag.

With reference to G.O., No. 189-R., dated 17th February 1896, communicating to heads of departments for scrutiny and remarks tables showing the powers of sanction delegated to various officers, I have the honour to forward herewith an office-note from my District Forest Officer for such action as you may deem necessary.

2. The powers granted in the following orders are omitted from the list :—

(1) G.O., No. 31, Revenue, dated 15th January 1894, printed in Board's Proceedings, No. 74, dated 2nd February 1894, empowering Collectors to grant special rewards up to Rs. 10 for good service in regard to forest offences not covered by ordinary rules; and

(2) Board's Proceedings, Forest No. 669, dated 1st December 1892, based on G O., No. 1017, dated 27th October 1891, authorizing Collectors to sanction refunds of forest revenue in the same way as land revenue refunds.

Enclosure.

Office-note from F. A. LODGE, Esq., District Forest Officer, to the Collector of Kurnool, dated Veldurti, 26th April 1896, R.C. No. 383-Mag.

[Reference—Your R.C. No. 383-Magl. of 1896.]

The enclosure to the above is herewith returned.

The list shows a few anomalies. A District Superintendent of Police can sanction new works or repairs up to Rs. 100; the District Forest Officer is limited to Rs. 50 for capital works and allowed Rs. 200 for ordinary works.

The order about rewards in forest cases should state from what source the rewards are to be paid, whether from fines realised, forest funds, or sale-proceeds of produce.

Assistant Commissioners of Salt and Abkári can sanction rewards up to Rs. 25 and Rs. 10 in certain cases; similar powers might be given to District Forest Officers.

Advances to Disbursers.—There is apparently no limit to the Collector's powers. I would suggest "double the limit prescribed for District Forest Officers".

Purchase of Furniture.—Country articles up to Rs. 50, European to Rs. 5. The Collector's general authority under Appendix to Board's Standing Order, No. 238, covers the special case of forests, so the latter need not be separately mentioned.

District Police Superintendents can purchase country articles up to Rs. 25; the same power might be given to District Forest Officers.

The District Forest Officer's powers to sanction capital works to Rs. 50 and ordinary to Rs. 200 are omitted from the list.

Endorsement by A. W. PEET, Esq., Conservator of Forests, Northern Circle, dated 13th August 1896, R.C. No. 361.

Forwarded.

Resolution—Forest Mis. No. 1272, dated 15th September 1896.

In continuation of Board's Proceedings, No. 218, Land Revenue, dated 16th June 1896, the Board begs to submit to Government a list of further additions to be made in the tables of powers of sanction submitted by the Accountant-General and printed in those proceedings.

2. The District Forest Officer, Kurnool, points out that Collectors' powers of sanction to purchase furniture are mentioned twice in the Accountant-General's tables —first, with reference to the general authority possessed by them under the appendix to Board's S.O., No. 238, and, secondly, with reference to the special power vested in them under section 148 of the Forest Code, 2nd Edition, so far as the Forest Department is concerned. The District Forest Officer suggests that the latter should be merged in the former. It will be observed, from the alteration proposed in item No. 15 of the appendix to the Board's Proceedings of the 16th June above referred to, that the Collectors' general powers have been recently enlarged so as to permit them to purchase country-made articles up to a limit of Rs. 100 in each case. The Board considers that the powers conferred by the Forest Code on Collectors and Conservators may also be similarly extended and requests the sanction of Government to amend clause 2 of section 148 of the Forest Code accordingly. If this is done, Mr. Lodge's suggestion that the special power vested in Collectors under the Forest Code need not be mentioned separately in the Accountant-General's tables may be adopted.

From F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 11th November 1896, No. 3450.

I have the honour to make the following observations with regard to G.O., No. 481, Revenue, dated 21st September 1896.

No objection exists to heads of departments being authorized to purchase, or sanction the purchase, of country and European articles within the limits specified in paragraph 7 of the order: I would, however, observe that in regard to European articles, no general power has been granted to heads of departments to make purchases for themselves of articles costing between Rs. 5 and Rs. 10. Paragraph 4 of G.O., No. 160, Financial, dated 15th February 1895, quoted by Government, requires the sanction of the controlling authority in such cases. That is to say, heads of departments may sanction such purchases by subordinate officers, but their own purchases require the sanction of Government. In the case of country articles, G.O., No. 14, Financial, dated 9th January 1895, empowers all heads of departments to make purchases for themselves of articles each costing not more than Rs. 100. It will be well, therefore, if Government makes the matters clear as regards the purchase of European articles.

With regard to paragraph 9 of the order under reference to which my attention is directed in Order, No. 710, Financial, dated 20th October 1896, I can only respectfully reiterate my opinion that the power of entertaining temporary establishment and of sanctioning recurring charges cannot be delegated to lower authorities without the assent of the Government of India. The question regarding large miscellaneous or unusual expenditure is on a slightly different footing, as it rests upon Article 75 of the Civil Account Code; in the other cases cited above, the power is especially delegated to Local Governments. I do not, however, think that a controlling authority can with propriety and without qualification divest itself of all control over expenditure the character and extent of which is unknown to it.

Order—No. 14, Financial, dated 8th January 1897.

The alterations indicated in the first of the papers read above will be carried out in the list in G.O., No. 59, Financial, dated 22nd January 1896.

2. Heads of departments will be authorized to purchase for themselves articles of European manufacture the cost of which does not exceed Rs. 10, subject to budget provision.

3. The Government of India will be addressed, if necessary, after the present question of delegation of powers has been fully disposed of. The Accountant-General will be requested to take steps in the meantime to consolidate and complete the list in G.O., No. 59, Financial, dated 22nd January 1896, with reference to the additions and alterations made since its issue, and to forward to Government in due course a list of such delegations as he considers require the sanction of the Government of India.

4. The Judicial, Local and Municipal, Marine and Public Works Departments will be requested to expedite the replies to paragraph 1 of the order last quoted.
