India Office,

17th September 1897.

Sir,

you

you will be furnished with a first-class passage back to England at the public expense, provided that you avail yourself of it within three calendar months of your leaving Government employment.

You have been posted in the first instance to Madras and a first-class passage to Madras in the Peninsular and Oriental Steam vessel "Massilia" has been secured for you. The steamer will leave London on the 22nd October 1897.

On arrival in India, you will report yourself without delay to the Secretary to the Government of Madras in the Public Works Department, from whom you will receive instructions for proceeding to your destination.

Your passage ticket is enclosed herewith, and you are requested to acknowledge its receipt.

I am, &c.,
Horace Walpole.

All communications should be addressed to the Secretary.
