From the Inspector-General of Prisons, Ootacamund, dated 26th December 1896, No.7247.

With reference to para.5 of G.O.No.2554 Judicial dated 14th November 1895, I have the honour to enclose copy of a letter No.702 V.Z.dated 7th December 1896 from the Superintending Engineer 1st Circle, and to recommend that the Public Works Department may be authorized to omit from the estimates relating to the Parvatipur Jail any provision for raising the floors of the wards by 3 feet. If each ward is provided with an impervious flooring, and if pials are built for the prisoners, the raising of the entire floors by 3 feet is probably unnecessary, and as it is now reported to involve the raising of the roofs, it would be very expensive. The health of the Hill men has been good at Vizagapatam throughout this year. There have been only 4 deaths up to 30th November in a population of about 500, and there is no reason to suppose that it will be necessary to reopen the Jail at Parvatipur. If this eventuality were to arise, the question of raising the floors might be further considered.

Enclosure.

From the Superintending Engineer, First Circle, No.

702 V.Z.

No. 702 V.Z., dated 7th December 1896:—

Referring to your No. 6572 dated 29th November 1895,
I have the honour to inform you that if the floors are raised 3 feet as proposed, extensive alterations in the shape of taking off and raising the verandah and main roofs will also be required.

Order No. 101, dated 22nd January 1897.

Provision for raising the floors by three feet may, as suggested, be omitted from the estimates for the present.
