I don't think Mr Le Fane
bias will do any harm.
The DOW members of the conference can record
dissent if they like.
Mr Winterbottom is four years junior to Mr Le Fane. Mr.
Willcock is not a -

officer such as Mr. Winterbotham or Mr. Willock, in whose wisdom and discretion the whole Presidency would have entire confidence.

3. Mr. Higham's note and the Government of ^{India's} ~~Union~~ remarks thereon show how just have been the remonstrances of the P.W. Department against the dual control of relief works, and I greatly fear that this point, which is of supreme importance to the -- future finances of the Presidency, will not receive adequate or impartial treatment at the hands of Mr. Le Fanu.
