Order thereon Misc. No. 6296 dated 6th December 1897.

The Government agrees with the Board in considering that the proposed exchange may be accepted. It is presumed that M.R.Ry. P. Venkatachelaipathy Garu is authorized to consent on behalf of his brothers. In any case, the exchange should be carried out under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act.

worth Rs. 10,000, may be granted in exchange for the site to be acquired for the construction of the Collector's Office. It appears that M.R.Ry. Paida Venkata Chelapathi Garu, one of the three brothers jointly owning the latter site, has agreed on behalf of himself as well as his brothers to the Collector's Proposal. In the circumstances stated, the Board considers that the exchange proposed by the Collector may be accepted.

4. The Board presumes that the old Deputy Tahsildar's Office at Cocanada is not required for any Government purposes. The Collector is requested to state if this presumption is correct.
