Submitted with reference to his final
note.

In the case of
more than one officer
it has been decided that no liability
can be imposed
after an officer
has retired.

Mr. Lyle has now severed his connection with the
P.W.D., & draws his pension from the
Ant. General.

Apparently the intention of Govt. is that a pension should not be withheld
except for mis-
conduct occurring
after the grant of
pension (C.S.R. 383)

The rules do
not provide for
any retrenchment

11878
The question of making a recovery from an officer's pension was raised by Lord Wellock (vide "Flag" 11), but it was decided that nothing could be done -

I don't think we can sanction this.
The carts were apparently in the road - at least I suppose - behind the rear wall of the Compound "Inland" & should have been
watched by some of the men.
Mr. Legge should hear
the loss himself

W. H. H.

W. H. H.
Yes. There were men with the carts, but apparently no one watching them for the men recruited were asleep. Mr. Legge having retired there may be a difficulty in compelling him to pay up.
It is not explained why the Sup. has allowed him to

from a pension on account of circumstances occurring during the service of an officer.

Pension are specially exempted from attachment by the Civil Court - (C.S. R.
1026 note 5) showing
that Govt. intends
them to be paid
in full.

It seems doubtful
if any large can be made to pay now.

Before submitting
the matter for the order of Govt., it
would be well
perhaps to ask the
Pension
Dept. if such a retrenchment
can be made.

A Ministerial order has been been passed before. Please put up file in which Mr. Durbak pleaded a writ of the effect that Mr. Hayes should be held responsible for bad work at

of my compound at Serambove, ready to start for Trinellors) were attacked by robbers on Sunday, 3rd Instant, about midnight, and the

2. The following persons were in charge of the carts, viz, Mungesam and Mankam sleeping near the banding, and acting from Andrews slept in one of the carts, while a cartman slept in the other. From Andrews was the first who awoke & gave the alarm. He was beaten by the robbers before they ran away, one severe stroke on his thigh with a stout stick left a swelling which was visible the following morning and partially lamed him.

3. I at once reported the matter to the Police, who are now investigating the case. The Supt of Police has also been addressed on the subject.
