Am So. P. 60.

In modification
of para 2 of R. Co.
2873 W. date 12th Oct
1887, the Govt. directed that according to Krupp's recommendation
he reverted from 6th Grade temporary rank
to 7th Grade, and that his re-promotion
to the 6th Grade be deferred for six months.

(As 80) & stopping her promotion to $100 per sea month.

Mr. Excellency has agreed to this being done.

The paper should I submit to the Am. M. Soc.
both because the ~~Am.~~

was a party to the former.
order (in the Treasury Dept.)
and became the present order being a modification of a former order ought to go to 2 Wms.

CURRENT No. 11438

For Orders -

Submitted with reference to his own
note of 9.11.97, on the paper flagged A.

The Accountant has been fined Rs 240/- for delaying the papers connected with an unpaid gratuity of Rs 16 for 5 months.

This seems a very excessive punishment, & I submit that it would suffice to delay his freedom to 6th June or 6 months, which is equivalent to giving him £120/-

The first call for explanation in this case was in para 3 of Sp. no 761 Pension of 10.0.96 in which the Secy was asked to call on the Ex. Engrs for explanation of the delay in submission of the settlement papers.

The explanation was submitted by the S.B.V. Circle, with letter no 324 W of 10.12.96 - The Secy Engrs then the blame of an Accountant Kuppaswami in this office and no 4969 C of 19.12.96, the Secy was asked for his opinion on the Accountant's

In Dec. then
suggested that the
accountant's explanation
should be obtained,
& the S.S. was asked to call for it. The explanation was submitted with the S.S. on 12.1.97, & the S.S. was again asked
for his remarks.

In Dec. opinion
was forwarded with his no 336 S.S. of 29.1.97, and all
the papers were transferred in original
to the Pension Dept.
with this office on 5
no 895 C. of 11.2.97 -
orders on these papers were passed in
no. 242 of 20.3.97

wherein it was stated
that of the accountant's explanation, if true,
exonerates him.

In the same order (para 3), the S.S. was called on to submit
a detailed statement
showing how the papers were from 31.12.95 to 1.1.1896, explaining who
was responsible for the delay which took place during the various stages, & reporting what
punishment it was proposed to inflict
upon the clerks at fault.

In his report no 287 S.S. of 15.7.97, the S.S. declared the accountant responsible for the delay between January & April 1896,

H

(Case 51, and in Case 8 he went on to say, "I consider Kupperman
under most reprehensible,
and since he was transferred to Karmool at a time when his family circumstances would not suit him, it was thought that further punishment was not ^{considered} necessary. If further punishment is deemed necessary, his promotion may be kept
back for a year."

The note for orders attached to
Co. No. 2873 W.D. 12.10.97
was written in the Pension Dept., where it was sent to the
P.W.D. for counter-initialed.
Col. Campbell returned
it with office note No.
12675 of 1-9-97, in which, among other
proposed measures, it
was recommended that

As Accountant Kupperman was under the office, & directly responsible for the delay, he should be reduced for one year from the 7th grade on 12.30 to the 6th grade on 12.60 - In Co. No. 713 B
of 17.9.97, the chief
suggestions were approved, & orders were issued
amounting in Co. No.
